POLK INSTITUTE FOUNDATION LAUNCHES INITIAL 40-WEEK PROGRAM DURING FEBRUARY'S BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Foundation Debuts on Martin Luther King Jr.'s Birthday

Los Angeles, CA... Polk Institute Foundation is an innovative online enterprise offering tuition-free Master Practitioner Training Accelerator and Capital Funding 40-week program with the focus of graduating fundable CEOs. It debuts on Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday, January 15, 2021.

February 1, the first day of Black History Month was selected to launch the first cohort because of the Foundation's emphasis on Black and Brown entrepreneurs.

In fact, it's an obsession for co-founder Gary Polk, a Black businessman, CEO, business consultant, university adjunct professor and author.

At the Polk Institute Foundation, social entrepreneurship companies are endeavors that are purpose-driven and represent the passion of the founder, whatever their ethnicity. These endeavors focus on People, Planet and Profit (Triple Bottom Line) and the belief that behaving ethically and generating profits are not conflicting concepts. In fact, Gary believes they align to drive success for everyone involved.

Polk Institute (PI) specializes in:

- Comprehensive program of practitioner-driven, training and funding

- Founders interested in the Triple Bottom Line
- Tuition-free training for U.S. residents through scholarships
- Welfare withdrawal
- Capital from individual donors, government, corporate, and foundation grants
- 40-week training of 10-course program of required/elective workshop modules
- Online learning and technology and innovation driven modalities, plus live synchronous and workshop classes.
